Tim Hortons family celebrates 30 years of serving their community

Paul and Beryl Stawarz came to Penticton in 1992 with a dream when they purchased their first two Tim Hortons. Today, with their daughters, the family now owns all the Southern Interior Tim Hortons from Osoyoos to Summerland as well as in Castlegar, Grand Forks and recently in Trail.

For the Stawarz family, operating Tim Hortons is about more than just serving favourite coffee. The family have always been philanthropic in nature and they are consistently wanting to give back to the community in which they live and work.

"It's about being engaged and supporting these small communities wherever we can." The Stawarz family, through their Tim Hortons' restaurants, supports numerous local organizations and charities such as TimBits sports, SOWINS, Junior Hockey and the SOS Medical Foundation. Recently, they have also made a $250,000 pledge to the OSNS Legacy Foundation.

When you work at any one of Tim Hortons owned by the Stawarz', you are part of the Tims family, said Nicole MacMillan (Stawarz).

They have many team members working with the family for 10,15, and even 25 years. "We are honoured to have them with us."

"They are the driving force and you can see how excited they get when we give back to our community and back to them. It really makes for successful fundraising," said MacMillan.

An example would be the team's tremendous enthusiasm during the recent Smile Cookie campaign that helped raise a record of $46,000 this year with all proceeds going to the OSNS Legacy Foundation.
